ENT203 - Speaking Test Guidelines and Sample

General Overview

1. Each test paper includes two parts. Students take the test in pairs.
2. The test includes a role-play with two different scenarios and a discussion with the examiner.
3. Timing: 10 minutes per pair.

Detailed Description for Each Part

Part 1. Role-play (2 minutes to prepare, 3-4 minutes to perform)
Each student receives a different scenario and acts out a conversation with their partner. After the first conversation, students switch roles and perform the second scenario.

Part 2. Discussion (2 minutes/student)
The examiner asks each student 1-2 questions individually.

Instructions for Examiner

A. Starting the Test

1. Gather students in the testing room, explain the test structure:

"Good morning/afternoon, everyone. Today's speaking test has two parts. In Part 1, you and your partner will role-play two different scenarios. In Part 2, I will ask each of you 1-2 questions."

2. Check attendance to ensure all students are present.
3. Instruct students to wait quietly outside until called.
4. Call each pair into the room by name to start the test.

B. Begin the Test

Part 1: Role-play (2 minutes to prepare, 3-4 minutes to perform)

1. "Let's begin with Part 1. I will give each of you a paper with a different scenario. Student B will start by asking questions, and Student A will respond. Then, switch roles for the second scenario."
2. "Here are your papers. You have 2 minutes to prepare."
3. "Now, (Student B), please start by asking your questions based on your scenario, and (Student A), respond accordingly."
Switch roles: "Now, (Student A), ask your questions to (Student B)."
4. "That's the end of Part 1. Let's move on to Part 2."

Part 2: Discussion (2 minutes/student)

"Now, for Part 2, I'm going to ask each of you 1-2 questions related to (specify the topic)."

C. Ending the Test

"That is the end of the speaking test. Thank you for your participation."
