FPT UNIVERSITY

Speaking Test Guidelines for Examiner

General Overview

- Students take the test individually.
- Part 1: Long run: Monologue on a given topic (3-4 minutes including 1-minute preparation time).
- Part 2: The examiner asks 1-2 questions from a list of 5 questions (connected from Part 1; lasts for 2-3 minutes).

Instructions for Examiner

Before the Test Starts

"Good morning/afternoon. Welcome to the speaking test. There are two parts to this test. In the first part, you will talk about a topic for 2-3 minutes. In the second part, I will ask you 1-2 questions."

Part 1: Long run

1. Introduce Part 1: The examiner lets the student choose their topic randomly.

   "Let's begin with Part 1. Select a topic card. May I have the question? (Examiner reads the question) You have 1 minute to prepare, and then 2-3 minutes to talk about it."

2. Monitor the time. If the student talks for over 3 minutes, politely stop them.

   "Thank you. That's enough for Part 1."

Part 2: Follow-up Questions

The examiner asks 1-2 questions (relevant to the unit from 5 given questions) to the student.

"Now we will move to Part 2. I'm going to ask you questions related to _____."

"Thank you for completing the speaking test. You may leave now."

FPT UNIVERSITY

ENT403 - Speaking Test Sample

Part 1. Description

Describe a part of your personality that others may not know.

You should say:

- what part of your personality it is
- why others may not know this about you
- how you feel about this part of your personality
- and explain how this part of your personality affects your life.

Part 2: Discussion Questions

Choose 1-2 questions to ask the student.

1. How does social media influence our behavior? Do you think it affects us in a positive or negative way? Why?
2. How does stress affect the way we behave? What are some healthy ways to manage stress?
3. Which mindset (pessimistic, realistic, or optimistic) do you think leads to greater happiness and success? Why?
4. How do you deal with criticism or failure?
5. How do you balance being realistic with staying optimistic about the future, especially when facing difficult situations?